THE DANCING CLASS.

Mr. Januey's dancing class drew a large assembly last night of both dancers and on-lookers, and by his indefatigable and conscientions labor he has succeeded in bringing his class to a degree of perfection in the "barn dauce" that makes the sight an extremely bright and attractive one. Many picturesque and graceful figures were danced, interspersed with the two step and waltz. These dances at Odd Fellows' hall Friday evenings greatly relieve the monot ony of society at this season of the year, and afford a healthful and pleasant change from the inevitable and perpetual card playing clubs for that purpose being organized and multiplied, embracing the old, the young, and the middle-aged and the nondescript.

FUNERALS.

The remains of Mrs. Ellen Grady, who died in this city yesterday morning, will be forwarded to Fairfax tomorrow morning by Demaine & Son.
The funeral services will be conducted

The funeral of the late Mrs. Virginis G. Walker will take place tomorrow atternoon from the residence of her brother, Mr. J. T. Walker, on Queen

The funeral of the late Frank Reid took place from the residence, "City View," Fairfax county, this afternoon. The interment was made in Ivy Hill cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs.
O. O. Carlin, John McWilliams, W.
E. Sternell, G. K. Pickett, Louis Shuman and Samuel Collard. The services were conducted by Rev. J. R. Sevier.

LOOKING FOR A STEAMER.

The officals of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company are still endeavoring to secure a steamer for the ferry route between this city and Washington. It is said they contemplate chartering the steamer Hoboken, now running between New York and New Jersey cities. The Hoboken is a sister bost to the Lackawanus.

The st amer Washington, which was damaged in the collision with the Lackawant a last Tuesday morning, left last night for Newport News, where she will be repaired. The Washington was in command of Capt. Kendrick, formerly of the Lackawanea.

"NEAR BEER" CASES ARE DIS-MISSED.

Judge Barham, in the Corporation Court of Newport News, has given his decision in the cases of the commonwealth against the Pabst and National brewing companies, the question in-volved being the constitutionality of that section of the Byrd law governing the sale of what is termed "near-beer" by i rawing companies doing an interstate business. The court upholds the contention of counsel for the defendants. and the cases are dismissed. The declaion is of considerable interest to people all over the state, as the questions involved have not been passed upon before a court of record.

RECEPTION.

M'ss Marian Bryant delightfully enterrained her friends, at her residence on Washington street, yesterday afternoon, at a tra given in honor of her guest, Miss Marguerite B. Jones, of Memphis. The dining room was beautifully decorated white chrysanthemums. Miss with white chrysanthemums. Miss Wat les presided at the table, assisted in serving by Miss Olarence Showden, Miss Mary Leadbaser, Miss Edith Showden, and Miss Dorothy Gatewood of Wash-Mary Leadbrater, M sa Edith Showden, and Miss Dorotby Gatewood of Washington, while Mrs. Downes served punch. Miss Brant was also assisted in enter taining her guests by Mrs. William Bry. ant, Mrs. Athur Byant and Miss Jes-

The Alexandria German Club held a The Alexandria German Club held a called meeting last night at the Chamber of Commerce, Dr. Thos. B. Coch an, the president, occupying the chair. The business of the meeting was the consideration and adoption by the club of a constitution and by-laws necessary to the consummating of a permanent organiz tion. The secretary, Mr. Douglas, having carefully read the instrumentand the meeting duly discussing the same-it was accepted in toto. It was then ordered that the governors, committee and officers proceed at once to arrange the number of dances to be given and the dates of same, as well as other important details, all of which are left very properly to their discretion and good tasts. The club is now a permaneuily organized social institution of the city, and it is hoped and believed that city, and it is hoped and believed that city, and it is hoped and believed that the present managers, all gentlemen of experience and character, will be gov-erned by good form and conservatism in their councils, avoiding radical innova-tions and changes which in the end lead to dissat'sfaction and disintegration, and also that all of those who are not already members of the club and desire to join will signify their intention by applying to Mr. James S. Douglas, jr., the club's

It may be mentioned on this connec-tion and as affording a decided variety, a new club composed entirely of young ladies and called "The Kit Kat Club," named no doubt after that celebrated club in London in the Eighteenth century, and that had for its members, such trate geniuses as Dr. Samuel Johnson, Ben Jonson, Congreve, Boswell and others who dispensed wit and wisdom at the old coffee-houses. These young ladies take a certain historical epoch and each will produce a paper at the recur-ring meetings written along this line, and they are proving to be extremely in-teresting and edifying to all who have had the good fortune to hear any of them read. So what with the barn dance on one hand and the British classice on the other, Alexandria may be said to be moving some.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held this year in the Methodist Episcopal Church South, Rev. C. D. Balls, pastor. Rev. J. R. Sevier, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, will preach the sermon. The following churches will unite in the service: First and Second Baptist, the second Presbyterian, First Methodist Protestant, the Methodist Episcopal Church South and most charmingly the members of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal.

CONDITIONS IMPROVING.

The condition of William O'Brien, who was shot by Philip Rust, while the former was in the la ter's house, corner of Prince and Payne streets, on Thursday night, is apparently improving. He rose from his cot at the Alexandria Hospital last night and walked about the room. Chief Goods keeps a police-man with the wounded man all the time. O'Brien came to this city about three years ago from Fredericksburg and it, is said, he has a wife and three children in

THE MARKET.

There was but little change to note in the market this morning. The supply was about as large as that of last Satur-day, and prices for all varieties of country produce were firm at former prices. Poultry was still high. A dressed goose weighing seven pounds was held at $1.75. Rabbits ranged in price from 20 to 35 cents each. Eggs were selling as high as 35 cents a dozen.

REMAINS INTERRED.

The remains of the unknown man, found near Mount Vernon last Sunday have been interred where they were found. The Fairfax authorities bave endcavored to identify the deceased, but they have failed so far. A pearl-handed razor, a gold watch and a cross and beads were found in the clothing.

SURPRISE PARTY.

A large number of young men and ten days. A man, charged with as-women gathered last night at the residence of Miss Edra E McKenney, on south Fairlax street, where a surprise party was given. The affair was enjoyable in every way, and all present were much pleased with their evening's experience. Games were indulged in and seasonable refreshments served.

AUCTION SALE.

Captain R. F. Knox, auctioneer, for T. J. Fannon and J. K. M. Norton, trustees, sold at auction this morning in front of the Royal street entrance to the City Hall a house and lot on the east side of Henry street, near Cameron, to J O. Perkin,, for $295.

COLONIAL DAMES.

The first meeting of the season of the Alexandria Circle of Colonial Dames was held vesterday evening at the residence of Mrs. J. Stewart Jamieson, on Columbus street. In the election of officers for the ensuing year, this being the most important business transacted, Mrs. S:ewait Jamieson received the unanimous vote for chairman and Mrs. Wm. J. Buothe, jr., for the office of secre-tary. Later Mrs. Jamieson entertained circle and a large number of other friends. In the dining room, where the decorations were most effectively carried out in Colonial colors, Mrs. Wm. B. Smoot poured coffee and Mrs. Wm. J. Boothe, jr., presided at the punch bowl Mrs. Louis Greene, Mrs. Gardner Boothe and Mrs. Laurence Stabler also assisted in serving. SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT. On Monday night at the Alexandria Opera House Dolores Stevens, the mar-velous child contortionist and toe dancer, will positively appear. This is without doubt the greatest child act of its kind on the American stage. Special return engagement of the Frankfords, Emma and Milton, the clever srtists, who so highly entertained the fun-loving public of Alexandria a few weeks ago. Their act is entirely new, featuring that great upside down piano act.

MAN IN THE YARD.

Mr. E. F. Lawler, who lives at 111 north Payne street, reports that last Thursday night shortly before William O'Brien was shot by Mr. Philip Rush in the latter's house, northwest corner of Payne attents. Prince and Payne streets, a man was discovered in his yard. The barking of the dog attracted Mr. Lawler's attention, and when he raised a window the tres-

New York Stock Market.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 7.—The strength that developed at the beginning of business the morning after election showed increased vigor all through the first hour's trading today, sdvances ranging from 2 to 7 points being made in a number of leading stocks. Becord breaking was common. A dozen stocks sold at the highest range reached in over a year, while Southern Pacific and Steel common passed the highest prices of the day. Business all around was so brisk that the tape during the first half hour was ten minutes behind the market. The market was influenced wholly by the spread of the buying fever, ing fever,

AUTUMN BAZAAR.

The bazar to be given for the benefit of the Young People's Building promises to be a most successful event, and has already assumed proportions much greater than was originally expected. Generous contributions have been received from many of the larger business houses throughout the coun'ry and the merchants of this city and of Washing-ton have responded liberally. The Alex-andria Lodge of Elks kindly loaned their booths, used at their fair last year, and the pretty ball of the Young People's Building will be transformed into a modern fairyland. The board of managers of the tazaar consists of Miss Anna Summers, cha rman; Mrs. Geo. R. Hill, Mrs. P. O. Cockey, Mrs. C. E. Dare, Mrs. R. L. Stuliz, Mrs. G. E.
